

Julia A. Purnell Museum

2017 Delmarva Needle Art Show & Competition

Thank you for submitting your needle art to the Julia A. Purnell Museum's Delmarva Needle Art Show and Competition. Pieces submitted to the show and/or competition must include the piece name, artist's name, address and phone number secured to the back of the piece. Limit three entries per person.

Prize ribbons will be awarded during this year's FiberFest (September 30). First, second and third place winners will be awarded by a guest judge, and a People's Choice Award will be decided by popular vote. All entries must remain on exhibit until 4:00 pm on October 31. Artists should make arrangements to pick up their pieces between 10 am and 4 pm Tuesday, October 3 through Friday, October 13, or call to make special arrangements.

The Museum will make every effort to ensure the safety and preservation of needle art submitted for the Delmarva Needle Art show and Competition. However, the Purnell Museum will not be responsible for any damage that occurs during the installation, exhibition, or dismantling of the Needle Art Show. In addition, the Purnell Museum will not be responsible for art left at the Museum after October 13, 2017.

Note: This year there are 3 categories: Adult, Children's, and Heirloom Pride. The Adult category is our regular adult competition. The Children's category is new. If this a Children's category entry, please include the child's name, age, and the name of a parent or guardian in the form below.
